REMARKS

This is UNEVALUATED Information

25X1

1. In early March 1955, [] a new ammunition depot was to be built in Westernmarke on the Falkenberg - Uckro railroad line. 1 25X1
2. It was learned that the Soviets ordered German construction firms previously employed there to complete the bunkers of the former German ammunition depot in Hohenleipisch. 2 25X1
3. The Poepechin ammunition depot was to be improved. It was rumored that the AAA emplacement on the hills northeast of the camp was to be reinforced by the Wuensdorf special construction bureau. Prior to mid-February, bricks and cement arrived by rail from the Kech in Luckenwalde. The emplacement was equipped with a 57-mm AA gun. The crew was quartered in earth bunkers and temporary buildings.
4. Between 20 February and 10 March, the following arrivals at, and deliveries from the Poepechin ammunition depot were observed:

Date	Number of Boxcars	Load	From
